

ROUND ABOUT GOTHAM.

VARIOUS DIALECTS SPOKEN IN THE METROPOLIS.

A Decidedly Polyglot City—Over One Hundred Languages Spoken and Read. Latest Art Novelty—Ebooks from the State and Green-Room.

NEW YORK HERALD. RICHMOND DAILY TIMES, November 29, 1890.

The number of different dialects spoken in New York number over one hundred. It seems impossible to realize that number of colonies, each a little city in itself, composed of foreigners who are not acquainted with the English language.

Of the city's foreign-born population, the most interesting within ten years the Russians have increased from 4,300 to 20,000. The greatest number of them are in the city. They are mostly Jews, though there are many of the pure Magyar stock among them.

PAPERS IN FOREIGN TONGUES.

Our foreign-born citizens, as a rule, prefer to think and read in their own tongue. In a tongue strange to most of us. Besides the papers printed in English, there are issued every morning 125,000 copies of every language.

WORLD OF SPORT.

Latest Features of the Gymnasium and the Track. The meeting arranged by the S. I. A. C. to take place at Madison-square Garden on the evening of December 11th, 12th, and 13th promise to be the most successful ever held there.

HIGH-ART NOVELTIES.

Dealers in high-art novel ties are showing some especially beautiful face, feather, and hand-painted cards, with pearls, diamonds, emeralds, and other precious stones. These are novelties in one sense, the face designs and the painted devices being very new and original.

INVESTMENT BONDS.

We make a specialty of first-class Investment Securities, which we keep constantly on hand for sale to FIDUCIARIES, TRUSTEES, AND INVESTORS GENERALLY.

It is a strange commentary on the attractions of racing to observe the intense and tireless interest with which Pierre Lorillard devotes himself to the study of the turf.

Figures are often misleading; but Salem has located more plants, built more houses, and made more substantial progress in a year than any other city of its size in Virginia.

Investors in Salem property are making large profits. Don't miss the great Anniversary Sale by the SALEM IMPROVEMENT COMPANY, December 11th and 12th.

A beautiful new map just out. For map, pamphlet, list of industries, and full particulars, address
